

Dearest Brothers,

It is an honor to be able to announce to you all that Nashville's first Black Men's Gathering is going to be held this April! Thinking back to the breakout meetings and recalling the spirit of accompaniment and support from this past July's BMG training forum at Green Acre, I humbly extend an invitation to each of you (especially those in the Southeast) to attend the Nashville BMG. The gathering will be held at the new Bahá'í Community Centre in Nashville, and if you are in need of hospitality, please let me know well in advance.

In short,

- 1) Cost of the Gathering: $20 (this includes all materials and food for the weekend)
- 2) Venue: Nashville Bahá'í Community Center
- 3) Dates: April 11-13, 2008

With Love and Thanks, and I look forward to hearing from those interested in attending, Frederick
