Dear brothers:

Your prayers for the progress of his soul are deeply appreciated. We salute dear Lloyd for his corrageous life and unique service to the cause of God.

With saddened heart,

Your brother,

Billy

Below is another update:

Dear Friends,

Lloyd Seawright will be buried this Friday morning --with full military honors -- at Wood National Cemetery on the grounds of the V.A. Hospital, 5000 W. National Ave., in Milwaukee. Those who plan to attend should meet at Bobbie Seawright's house -- 2117 N. 1st St. -- at 10:30 a.m. this Friday, October 24. We will drive to the cemetery as a group (in a convoy).

Thanks to Lloyd's friends at the National Association of Black Veterans, the celebration of Lloyd's life that Bobbie has requested will likely be held at either the War Memorial or Centennial Hall during the first week of November. We will forward the exact details of that event as soon as we receive them.

Your prayers and good wishes are greatly appreciated.

Loving Baha'i Greetings,
Milwaukee Baha'i Community
